25X1A 18. (Confidential - LLM) BRIEFING Dick Moose, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called to arrange a briefing for himself and Messrs. Pat Holt, also of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and Marian Czarnecki and Jack Sullivan, both of the House International Relations Committee staff, by [REDACTED] NIO/China, prior to their trip to the People's Republic of China in July. Moose acknowledged that the congressional staff delegation had already received a briefing from a CIA analyst [REDACTED] OER, briefed as part of a private organization). Moose said that their interest is more specific as they want to know how the PRC uses its foreign aid program for political ends, etc. [REDACTED] OCI, was advised and said he would make the necessary arrangements.

25X1A 19. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to find out if there was anything further the Committee needed in connection with Mr. Knoche's confirmation hearing tomorrow. Miller said he felt that everything was in order.

25X1A 20. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Called Joe Jenx, White House staff, concerning the proceedings in the Senate on [REDACTED] confirmation. He agreed to push it along.

25X1A 21. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Tim Hardy, White House staff, called wanting to know if anything had happened on the destruction of documents. I reviewed the status of the letters being sent to Senators Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) and Hugh Scott (R., Pa.) and I said we would LDX him copies.
